

Ad Place your ad here. Click triangle to begin. ◀ ?

Historical group presents U.S. flag to museum

The Santa Margarita Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution presented a U.S. Flag to the Green Dragon Museum & Pub in Carlsbad. From left, Wanda Prosser, Jeanette Shiel, Adele Lancaster, Dick Wilson, Joan Wilson, Alida Woodward, John Lek, Linda Ramos, Sue Stehle, Mary Catherine Kirby, Diana Cook and Carole Shanahan.

By Linda McIntosh

APRIL 22, 2016, 10:53 AM

The Santa Margarita Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution presented a U.S. Flag to the Green Dragon Tavern & Museum in Carlsbad for use in their meeting rooms. The pub, which serves New England fare, is a replica of the Green Dragon Pub in Boston where many of the country's forefathers met to plan the Revolution.

The tavern's nonprofit foundation runs a free Revolutionary War museum on site focused on the country's heritage and contributions of its founders.

Members of the Daughters of the American Revolution, who have ties to patriots supporting the Revolutionary War, presented the flag as part of their mission to preserve the country's history.

Chapter regent, Linda Ramos, led the group in the Pledge of Allegiance before presenting the flag to John Lek, general manager of the facility. The flag is by the window in the meeting room.

The Oceanside-based chapter is part of the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution, a nonprofit volunteer woman's service group, formed in 1890 and now consists of 3,000 chapters and more than 180,000 members promoting historic preservation, education, and patriotism.

The Santa Margarita chapter was established in 1929 and is open to women who can prove lineal descent from a Revolutionary War patriot who helped attain American independence.

Visit <http://www.santamargarita.californiadar.org/> and www.greendragontavernca.com

linda.mcintosh@sduniontribune.com

Copyright © 2017, The San Diego Union-Tribune